

There's a cone shaped washer and smaller nut are compression nuts/washer, these are used on older plumbing hoses. These are included just in case someone still has these water lines. This attaches from your water source to the inlet line on the faucet. You do not need the cone shaped washer and smaller nut if you have compression hoses.